

A Question a Day... Keeps Your Staff Focused on Customers!

Do motivational posters hang on your office walls? How many of your staff know what these posters say? Do they even see them any more?

Motivational posters are very inspirational—for a few days. If you want to challenge and stimulate your staff's thinking about customers on a daily basis, your messages must be different, unique—and constantly changing.

Daily Service Questions, beautifully reproduced, colorful, and exciting, rival wall motivational posters because they can be rotated every day to challenge, stimulate, and excite your staff.

Daily Service Questions cover three topics:

- Creating Customer Loyalty
- A Complaint Is a Gift
- Putting People First

Daily Service Questions are available with an elegant clear stand, so the questions can be changed with a new question presented each day.

Daily Service Questions are so attractive, in fact, that it is hard for staff to leave them alone. Their convenient size (8.5 x 11 inches) invites them to move all over the office, pinned to cubicle walls and posted to notice boards. And priced at $3.00 per card, they are a genuine bargain.

- A Complaint Is a Gift, 15 posters ..... $ 45
